Signal Corps
Centennial Year
1860-1960

The Monmouth Message

100 Years
Of Progress
In Communications

Published by Richard C. and Edward N. Klein, Publishers, Inc., Oakhurst, N. J. Opinions expressed by the publisher and writers herein are their own and are not to be considered an official expression by the Department of the Army. The appearance of advertisements in this publication does not constitute an endorsement by the Department of the Army of the products or services advertised.

VOLUME 10, Number 36 | Published in the Interest of Personnel at Fort Monmouth, New Jersey | THURSDAY, APRIL 14, 1960 | FIVE CENTS PER COPY

Aldrich Panel Moderator

Discussion to Open Safety Council's 1960 Sessions

FORT MONMOUTH — James G. Aldrich, Post Safety Officer, will be moderator for a panel discussion at the opening meeting of Monmouth County Safety Council's 1960 sessions on industrial accident prevention next Monday night in Bldg. 678.

Conducted by the council's industrial committee, the sessions will continue on succeeding Mondays thru 9 May from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Admission is free.

Monday night's panelists, who will consider 'The Supervisor's Role in the Safety Program,' are Vincent Mooney, safety engineer, Chubb and Son, New York City, and Paul Rasmussen, safety promotion supervisor, Bureau of Engineering and Safety, New Jersey Department of Labor and Industry, Newark.

Program

Following is the program for the remainder of the meetings:

25 April — 'Magic of Fire', a lecture and demonstration by Hugh D. Graham, mining health and safety engineer, U. S. Bureau of Mines, Health and Safety Division, Albany, N. Y.

2 May — 'The Need of First Aid Training in Industry,' H. J. Rowland, supervisor, safety and first aid training, City of Asbury Park.

9 May — 'Accident Prevention — A Management Responsibility.' Moderator, Elmer J. Noll, Esso Standard Division of Humble Oil and Refining Company. Panel: Ellen M. McAlnsh, chairman, women's committee, Monmouth County Safety Council, and George J. Mattwes, safety director, Bamberger's New Jersey.

Ordnance Unit Holds

TIROS REPLICA—Herbert Butler (center) project manager for TIROS weather satellite program, is shown with Abraham Schnapf, left, and Baron Kreuzer, both of RCA Astro-Electronic Products Division, looking over replica of successfully orbiting satellite. TIROS was built by RCA under technical supervision of U. S. Army Signal Research and Development Laboratory, here. (U.S. Army Photo)

Video Tape Debuts Here; Two Machines Dedicated

FORT MONMOUTH — 'TV Tape' — the device that revolutionized the television industry — has come to Fort Monmouth.

Brig. Gen. Charles M. Baer, Commandant, U. S. Army Signal School, recently dedicated two RCA Television Tape Machines which are installed in the studios of WFM-TV, the USASCS closed-circuit TV station. Simultaneously the dedication ceremonies were recorded on one of the machines.

Applications of video tape will greatly expand the capabilities of the Signal School TV system, Gen. Baer said. Programs can be recorded on magnetic tape with 'live' qua-

NCO Wives Plan Children's Program

FORT MONMOUTH — Final plans for the annual children's Easter program sponsored by members of the NCO Club were discussed at a meeting Monday night of the club's wives' auxiliary.

The program is scheduled for 1300 hrs. Sunday at the club and some 300 children are expected to attend.

A cartoon feature, 'Alice in Wonderland,' will head the program which also features Easter baskets, prizes, ice cream,

Elect Col. Obenchain FMOOM President

Dr. Mason Gross To Speak Here

FORT MONMOUTH — Dr. Mason W. Gross, president of Rutgers, The State University, New Brunswick, will be the featured speaker at the Commandant's Guest Speaker Program next Thursday at 0940 hrs. in Myer Hall Auditorium.

His topic will be 'Modern Age Challenges to Higher Education'. Military and civilian personnel are invited to attend.

Communists Still Aim At World Domination, DA Pamphlet Warns

WASHINGTON, (ANS) — 'Let no one assume that the Communists have given up their aim of world domination. They never have relied solely on military might to achieve their ends. Consistently they have used propaganda and subversion, and recently they have been using economics penetration as a new weapon. If they relax the military threat, they may be expected to put more emphasis on economic penetration.'

This is the warning issued by new DA Pam 355-122, The Communist Economic Threat, the pamphlet, now being distributed Army-wide, explains:

'To understand what the Soviets are doing, look back to 1954. About that time they began using economic programs to gain greater influence in the less developed countries. Thru increased trade and offers of aid, the Communist bloc tried to promote its political objectives, to reduce the influence of the United States and its allies, to disrupt free world defensive measures, and to increase its own prestige and power.'

Offensive Pressed

Then in 1958 the pamphlet continues) the world bloc used its economic offensive by

EASTER VOCALISTS—The voices of the Fort Monmouth Junior Choir will be heard in special Easter music at the Post Protestant services on Easter Sunday at Chapel No. 2. Above, singing on Palm Sunday, Choir members left to right are (front row): Mary Jane Oberchain, Stephen Secan, Margaret Ann Lester, Edith Jackson, Kathy Brown; (second row): Sam Jackson, Betty Blake, Sally Ann Satagaj, Frances White; (standing) Jeweleon Jackson, Joyce Hoskin, Christine Scott, Kathy Oberchain, Jimmie Scanlon, Tom MacMurray, Sondra Blotti, Jim Secan, Brinah White, David Lerner and Kathy Sosford. Mrs. Aubrey M. Smith is organist and choir director; Mrs. Shick, assistant organist and choir director, and Mrs. G. L. Lerner, choir mother. (USAS-PubA Photo by Robinson.)

42 Allied Officers Visit Nation's Capital

FORT MONMOUTH — Forty-two Allied officers attending the U. S. Army Signal School visited Washington, D. C., during the annual Cherry Blossom Festival last weekend on a two-day tour sponsored by the Allied Liaison and Visitors Division.

Led by Escort Officer Lt. Richard L. Wirtz, the group, representing 18 countries, departed from Fort Monmouth early Saturday morning. Included on the first day's itinerary were the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, and the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Ar-

Can't Rely on Computers Alone in Defense: Groves

FORT MONMOUTH — Lt. Gen. Leslie R. Groves (Ret.) told an audience at the U. S. Army Signal School last week that he would 'hate to see the United States place its entire defense on computers.'

Speaking at the Commandant's Guest Speaker Program on the subject, 'Electronic Computing in the Military,' the vice president of Remington Rand and former head of the World War II atomic bomb project, attacked the idea of computers handling the nation's defense.

Services Set For Easter

Plan Observances Here Tomorrow, Sunday Morning

FORT MONMOUTH — Special religious services have been scheduled at Fort Monmouth tomorrow, Good Friday, and for Easter Sunday.

For those of the Catholic faith, a three-hour liturgical service is to be held tomorrow at the Field House from 1200 to 1500 hrs. A Catholic liturgical service will be held at 0900 hrs in Chapel No. 2.

Three-hour Protestant Devotional Services will be held tomorrow from 1000 to 1300 hrs in Chapel No. 1 and in Myer Hall Auditorium. Personnel are invited to enter and leave the services as desired.

Absence Authorized

Commanders of activities and chiefs of staff sections are authorized to grant absence not to exceed two hours, in addition to the normal lunch hour, to Catholic and Protestant military and civilian personnel who wish to attend Good Friday devotions.

On Easter Sunday, Catholic masses will be held in Chapel No. 2 at 0700, 0800, 0930 and 1030, and in Myer Hall Auditorium at 1115 hrs.

The Protestant Easter observance opens with a sunrise service at 0600 hrs. in the Myer Hall amphitheater. Easter worship services will be held at 1000 hrs. in the auditorium, Myer Hall, and at 1100 hrs. in Chapels No. 1 and 4.

Confessions Set

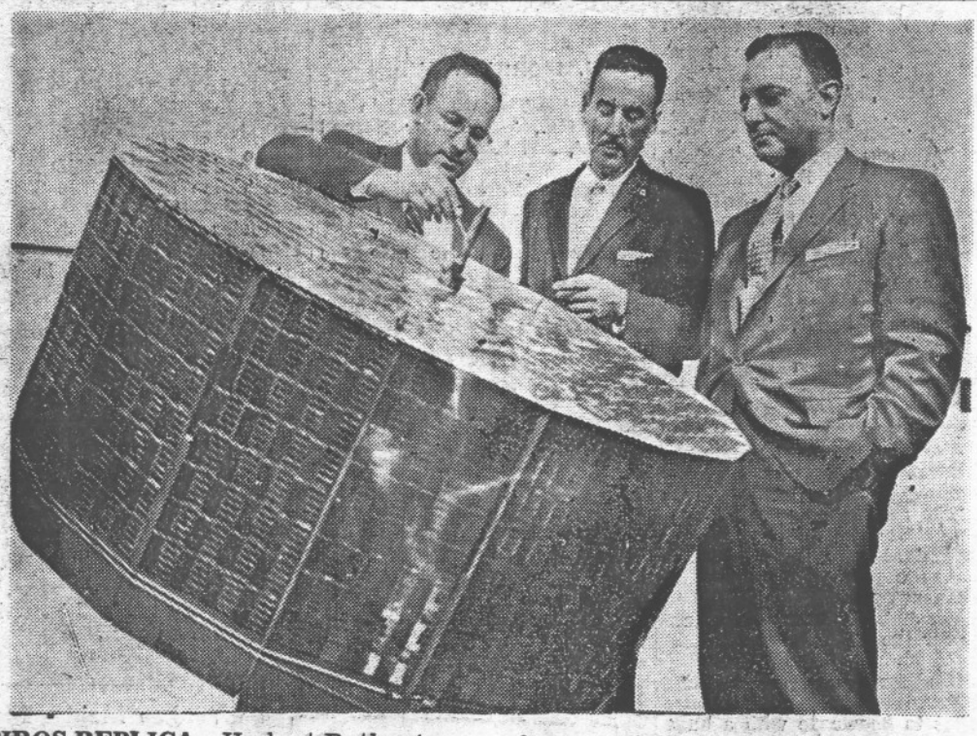
Today, Holy Thursday, Catholic confessions will be heard from 1700 to 1800 hrs. in Chapel No. 2, followed at 1800 by mass and a procession.

Fort Monmouth children this week begin their Easter vacation, as local schools close for

The Monmouth

Published by Richard C. and Edward N. Klein, Publishers, Inc., Oakhurst, N J Opinions expressed by ... considered an official expression by the Department of the Army. The appearance of advertisements in thi... of the Army of the products or servi...

36 Published in the Interest of Personnel at Fort Monmouth New Jersey THURSDAY



TIROS REPLICA—Herbert Butler (center) project manager for TIROS weather satellite program, is shown with Abraham Schnapf, left, and Baron Kreuzer, both of RCA Astro-Electronic Products Division, looking over replica of successfully orbiting satellite. TIROS was built by RCA under technical supervision of U. S. Army Signal Research and Development Laboratory, here. (U.S. Army Photo)

Video Tape Debuts Here; Two Machines Dedicated

FORT MONMOUTH — 'TV Tape' — the device that revolutionized the television industry — has come to Fort Monmouth.

Brig. Gen. Charles M. Bu... Commandant, U. S Army Signal School, recently dedicated two RCA Television Tape Machines which are installed in the studios of WFM-TV, the USASCS closed-circuit TV station. Simultaneously the dedication ceremonies were record...

NCO Wives Plan Children's Program

FORT MONMOUTH — Final plans for the annual children's Easter program sponsored by members of the NCO Club were discussed at a meeting Monday night of the club's wives' auxiliary.

The program is scheduled for

Elect Col. Obenchain FMOOM President

Dr. Mason Gross To Speak Here

FORT MONMOUTH — Dr. Mason W. Gross, president of Rutgers, The State University, New Brunswick, will be the featured speaker at the Commandant's Guest Speaker Program next Thursday at 0940 hrs. in Myer Hall Auditorium.

His topic will be 'Modern Age Challenges to Higher Education'. Military and civilian personnel are invited to attend.

Communists Still Aim At World Domination, DA Pamphlet Warns

WASHINGTON, (ANS) — 'Let no one assume that the Communists have given up their aim of world domination. They never have relied solely on military might to achieve their ends. Consistently they have used propaganda and subversion, and recently they have been using economics penetration as a new weapon. If they relax the military threat, they may be expected to put more emphasis on economic penetration.'

This is the warning issued by new DA Pam 355-122, The Communist Economic Threat. The pamphlet, now being distributed Army-wide, explains:

'To understand what the Soviets are doing, look back to 1954. About that time they began using economic programs to gain greater influence in the less developed countries. Thru increased trade and offers of aid, the Communist bloc tried to promote its political objectives, to reduce the influence of the United States and its allies to disrupt free...

EASTE... Fort ... heard ... Post ... day a... Palm ... right ... chain, ... Lester ... (secon... Sally ...

42 All... Visit ...

FORT ... two Allie... U. S. Arr... ed Washi... annual Ch... last week ... sponsored ... and Visit...

Led by ...